I am exhibiting a process—the right for the District I own—by which letters, circulars, &c. are produced an exact fac-simile of the type-writer. An expert cannot teil the difference. The many so-called 'graphs and processes are not to be compared to it. The infinite uses to which it may be put can only be appreciated upon investigation. It is, as an advertising medium, without question the greatest achievement of modern times. The cost is but a triffe more than the ordinary printed circular or letter, but each sheet bears the impression of a personal letter and carries with it the influence of such. It is a bonanza for the progressive man and well worth the attention of every business man who desires to increase his bank account. Call and see it or telephone &0 and it will see you.

The petition suggests that the following organizations be invited to participate in the ceremonies: National and all state officials of the Grand Army of the Republic the

the Grand Army of the Republic, the military order of the Loyal Legion, the Society of the Cincinnati, Sons of the American Revolution, Sons of the Revolution, the President, Vice President, members of Congress, the proper army and navy representatives, diplomatic corps, and through representatives, diplomatic corps, and through the President, Col. De Pusey, grandson of Gen. Lafayette, and other dignitaries that the committee may deem proper.

The post had also decorated the grave of Lafayette in Paris on two occasions. The courtesies at those times extended have since been repeatedly acknowledged on public occasions in France when officials of the post have been visiting that country, and thus a kindly feeling has been kept alive between the organization and their French friends.

The post will visit Washington at the coming encampment several hundred strong, accompanied by the Seventh Regiment Band. The petition asks Congress in case Congress takes action respecting the dedication of the Lafayette statue that the post be accepted for such escort and other duty as may be desired.

Mr. Little entitled a bill "To provide for the dedication of the statue erected to the memory of Marquis Marie Jean Paul Roch Yver Gilbert Motier de Lafayette, a major general in the army of the United States." The bill appropriates $3,000 to enable the committees of the House and Senate on public buildings and grounds to dedicate the statue on the 19th of September during the Grand Army encampment.

THE TREATY RATIFIED. The Action of the Senate Was Finally

Unanimous. SEVERAL MORE SPEECHES WERE MADE IN THE EXECUTIVE SESSION YESTERDAY-A SINGULAR PHASE OF THE DEBATE WAS THAT THE TREATY

ITSELF WAS NOT DISCUSSED. The Bering sea arbitration treaty has at last been ratified. A vote was reached yesterday afternoon, and, without the least hitch or disagreement, the Senate put itself on record in favor of the treaty. There had been opposition to the document, but within the two or three days preceding the roll call it had vanished completely. Yesterday's session was very much like its imntediate predecessors in one respect; it was a dreary continuation of uninteresting speeches, in which the already overflowed and harrowed ground was again disturbed. SENATOR SHERMAN'S EXPLANATIONS. Senator Sherman was the first orator. He explained away one or two points on which a few Senators were alleged to be a trifle befogged, and then gave way to those who de-sired to prolong the agony with a further suc-cession of words strung together in a more or less grammatical, but non-exciting fashion. Those who addressed the chair after Senator Sherman got through with his opening address were Senators His with his opening address were Senators Hig-gins, Morgan, Palmer and Stewart. None of these developed anything that looked like in-formation and when they wearied the roll was called. Seventy-two Senators—all that were called. Seventy-two Senators—all that were present—voted in the affirmative. They are the following Senators:

Allen, Allison, Barbour, Bate, Berry, Blackburn, Butler, Call. Cameron, Carey, Carlisle, Chandler, Cockrell, Coke, Cullom, Daniel, Dawes, Dixon, Doiph, Dubois, Felton, Frye, Gallinger, George, Gibson of Louisiana, Gibson of Maryland, Gordon, Gorman, Gray, Hale, Hansbrough, Hawley, Higgins, Hiscock, Hoar, Kenna, Kyle, McMillan, McPherson, Mitchell, Morgan, Paddock, Palmer, Pasco, Peffer, Perkins, Pettigrew, Platt, Power, Proctor, Pugh, Quay, Ransom, Sanders, Sawyer, Sherman, Shoup, Squire, Stewart, Stockbridge, Teller, Turpie, Vance, Vest, Vilas, Voorhees, Walthall, Warren, Washburn, White, Wilson and Wolcott.

THE TREATY ITSELF NOT DISCUSSED. nection with the treaty is the fact that the treaty itself has never been discussed. Senators have receied off learned disquisitions on all the unimportant issues that seemed probable and on several descriptions. all the unimportant issues that seemed probable and on several that were highly improbable, but they have unanimously refrained from discussing the character or the terms of the document itself.

THE COURT OF ARBITRATION. It is stated this afternoon-and the information comes from a reliable source-that the court of arbitration has been reorganized; Austria taking the place of Italy. There has always been objection to Italy because it was believed by a good many people that the Italian monarch would probably be influenced in his decision by a natural desire to get even for that New Orleans affair. As against this statement is another to the effect. against this statement is another to the effect that this government has decided to pay Italy 100,000, francs as stated elsewhere.

Before the Bering sea treaty was ratined the President had decided upon the men whom he desired to represent the United States upon the arbitration board. The chosen ones were ex-Senator John C. WALT WHITMAN BURIED.

Several Thousand Persons Attend the Post's CAMDEN, N. J., March 30. - Between 11 o'clock this morning and 1 o'clock this afternoon sev-eral thousand people viewed the body of Walt Whitman. The poet looked natural and those of his friends who had not been able to see him during his last illness were pleased to find his face as calm and placid as if he had just lain down to sleep.

Among the friends and admirers of the late Among the friends and admirers of the late poet present were George W. Childs, Julian Hawthorne, Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, Horace Howard Furness, Dr. Daniel G. Brinton, John Burroughs, J. H. Johnston, Lincoln L. Eyre, J. H. Stoddart, Francis Howard Williams, Talcott Williams, Dr. R. M. Buck, Thomas B. Harned, Horace S. Traubel, Judge Charies Garrison, H. L. Bonsall, Rev. J. H. Clifford, Harrison S. Morris, Herbert H. Gilders, H. D. Bush, Julius Chambers, Thomas Eakins, A. G. Cattell and Edmund Clarence Stedman.

At 2 o'clock the body was taken to Harleigh cemetery, in the outskirts of Camden, and a public funeral service held. As Whitman himself had wished, no clergyman participated in the exercises. The service was begun with the reading of the Scriptures and the dead poet's works by Francis Howard Williams of Philadelphia. Addresses were then made by Thos. B. Harned of Camden, Dr. Daniel G. Brinton of Philadelphia and Dr. R. M. Buck of London, Ontario, the friend and biographer of Whitman. Col. Robert G. Ingersoil made the concluding address, which was an eloquent culogium of the dead poet's life and works and his service to the cause of democracy. The body was then consigned to the tomb, which was constructed under Whitman's direction three years ago. At 2 o'clock the body was taken to Harleigh
